REMINDERS

- Town of Glenwood website: townofglenwoodstcroix.com
- The Town of Glenwood has a new email address for the Chairman. It is: glenwoodchairman@gmail.com
- You must purchase a garbage card to bring garbage to the dump. You do not need a garbage card to bring recyclables. The garbage card costs $70 annually if paid for by January 31. The cost for a garbage card is $75 if paid for after January 31. You can purchase a garbage card by contacting the Town Treasurer, Audrey Maes. Please call for an appointment if you need to get one, 715-265-7098 or 715-684-9737. You will also be able to buy a garbage card during clean-up day.
- The Town of Glenwood does not issue burning permits. However, it is your responsibility to call the St. Croix Dispatch Center @ 800-281-3478 to let them know you are burning. If the Fire Department responds to a call about your fire, and you have not notified the dispatch center, you are responsible for the charges. Also, you must follow all County and State issued burning bans.
- Please remember that all dogs need to be licensed. The Town of Glenwood has contracted with Dedicated Animal Control Services to handle stray dogs. The Town of Glenwood dog ordinance can be viewed on the Town of Glenwood website: townofglenwoodstcroix.com. If you need to license a dog, contact Audrey Maes, 715-265-7098 or 715-684-9737.
- Town board meetings are held the 2nd Monday of the month, @7 pm, @ Town of Glenwood Shop, 3099 160th Avenue.

The Town of Glenwood Board wishes all its residents a safe and healthy summer!!
